*TGMC is contracted with the insurance companies, networks and health plans listed above. However, patients should note that hospital based physicians such as: radiologists, pathologists, anesthesiologists, emergency room physicians, and neonatologists providing healthcare services at the hospital may not always have a contract with all the companies listed above. These physicians will submit charges for professional services provided to you and are in addition to the patient's hospital bill. In order to obtain information regarding network participation of any hospital based physician, patients may refer to the online provider directory of their insurance company for the most up-to-date information, call the hospital admitting department, or call the physician's customer service number. Patients may request specific information from their health insurance issuer as to what benefits are payable under their healthcare policy for hospital based physicians. In order to assist you, the following list provides the customer service telephone numbers and billing addresses for all hospital-based physicians who practice at Terrebonne General Medical Center.
